The built in Image Stabilizer eliminates hand held shake and gives continuous operation for up to 6 hours. We bought this for an Alaskan cruise and it was absolutely sensational. Press that IS button and everything just smoothes out to a crystal clear image. Seriously, this is the only binocular you need. Get the higher magnification if you can afford it but the IS is a quantum leap over anything you have been used to a real game changer Easy to use, Compact, Build quality My one gripe is that the user must continually depress a button whilst holding the binoculars to use the image stabilising function. The button is ergonomically placed on the top centre of the binoculars but it would be preferable to manually turn the image stabilisation on or off. Great service from Teds, fast delivery with tracking and the package was extremely well packed.
